Fair Work Ombudsman — International Students and Workplace Rights

Entity: Australian Government — Fair Work Ombudsman

Snapshot date: 2026-09-27

Source URL: https://www.fairwork.gov.au/tools-and-resources/fact-sheets/rights-and-obligations/international-students

Important: This file is a project source snapshot prepared from the official source listed above. It is not an official publication of the university or Australian Government. It is intended for the team's local RAG knowledge-base experiments and should be refreshed before final deployment.

Workplace rights

- International students have basic workplace rights and protections under Australian workplace law.
- Migration status does not remove workplace entitlements.
- Minimum pay and conditions can depend on the applicable award, agreement or contract.

Pay and conditions

- Employees receive minimum entitlements under the National Employment Standards where applicable.
- Award-covered workers may have minimum pay rates, penalty rates and allowances specific to the relevant award.